RICHMOND WANTS HELP. Many Are Said to Be in Need of Im-mediate Relief. Richmond, Texas, September 13.—The armers in the Guy, Needville and Beasly neighborhoods are in great need of assistance at once. A number of families had everything blown away; no provisions or clothing except the clothes they escaped in. The grocery and provision stores are blown down and their entire stocks destroyed; and owing to the condition of the roads only a few have sufficient teams to get to town with. The people of Richmond suffered as bad as any town outside of Galveston, and they are not in a condition financially to render them any assistance to any great extent. The town is almost a total wreck, ny a house in town that was not damaged. Aside from the white people that are in a destine condition, the aegrees in and about Richmond are destitute and unless something is done many will suffer. The people at this place have scarcely gotten over the effect of the flood, and having had everything they have blown away readers them helpless to render any assistance. All contributions sent to the country judge. J. S. McEachin, will be judiciously distributed among the sufferers. clothing except the clothes they exceped
